

WOMEN AT THE FOREFRONT OF TECHNOLOGY SALON

SLS Hotel Beverly Hills
February 26, 2015

Visionary Women hosted its inaugural "Women in Technology" forum with members Angella Nazarian, Honorable Lili Bosse, Veronica Smiley and Ambassador Nicole Avant hosted the event, along with luxury retailer NET-A-PORTER.COM. Industry VIPs and L.A.'s top female leaders were among the 200 guests that attended the event. The panel was moderated by five-time Emmy®-winning journalist Giselle Fernandez, and included a panel presentation by four leaders in the technology industry—Dawn Ostroff, president of Condé Nast Entertainment; Pauline Fischer, vice president of original programming for Netflix; Doris Kim Sung, founder of Dosu Architecture; and Julie Uhrman, founder and CEO of Ouya. It was a successful event for this women's non-profit organization, as they prepare for other an ambitious and exciting women's salon series.
